Subject: Motion For Adjournment And Sanctions

Dear Ms. Levine,

Here is my Motion For Adjournment And Sanctions, along with the Exhibits. All of this was just filed with the Court in separate emails.

This is your own fault. If you had just answered my emails of the past 3 weeks and simply told me the truth, regarding this matter, all of this could have been avoided. But you ignored all of my emails about this and so you forced me to have to file this, because I can't talk with you anymore until this is cleared up, as I can't trust the SEC anymore and I am pro se, so we both need to abide by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. However, if I can't trust you, I can't talk to you.

I have enclosed my new address in the Motion attached, which is NOT a post office box. However, please note that my fiancée and I have decided to live in both Buenos Aires AND in Mendoza, so I will not always be there if you want me to sign for Fedexes, but there will always be our family and friends there to receive documents for us. We will be going back and forth between Buenos Aires and Mendoza every week (and also to Mar del Plata and Mount Hermoso starting in October).

Sincerely,

Lawrence Niren/Theodore Roxford

Re: Securities & Exchange Commission v.
Hollingsworth, Rothwell & Roxford, et al,
Case No. 07 Civ. 6146 (PKC)

Dear Mr. D'Agostino & Ms. Nacanthier,

On September 26, 2007 the SEC's attorney, Sarah Levine, emailed HRR's attorney and me that she could not make the October 5, 2007 conference and that she would ask the Court for the next available date. My father in law is getting worse and the doctors have said that he may be only days away from passing away. He has been in a coma for days now and I spend 90% of my time at the hospital with my new wife praying for her father.

Please let us know what the new date is in place of the October 5 conference? Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Niren/Theodore Roxford

October 29, 2007

Dear Judge Castel,

On October 23, 2007 I emailed you my Motion For Reconsideration and other documents in regard to your ridiculous ruling on my Motion To Dismiss and HRR's Motion To Dismiss. I now find out today that you have refused to rule on it and that you have even refused to docket it with the Court - even though I also mailed it to the Court with my original signature. As I explained to you over and over again, mail to and from Argentina is very erratic, and the Court has still not received what I sent it in the mail. Here is my original signature.

I am not allowed to file ECF because I am not an attorney. The mail is erratic. You allowed me to file all of my Motions before by email, so there should be no reason why you cannot also allow me to file this Motion For Reconsideration. Simply rule on it with your usual denial and I will be satisfied that at least you have considered it.

This Court represents corruption and biased at its worst, since neither I nor HRR have ever had anything to do with New York and you know it, and yet you only accepted an Affidavit from an SEC person who had nothing to do with this case until 2007 and submitted a perjured Affidavit. You didn't even consider 8 other Affidavits. You read articles on me and you are dying to convict me. This is corrupt and biased on your part.

So I have no choice but to keep emailing you my Motion For Reconsideration over and over again, since I am looking into filing corruption charges against you.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Niren/Theodore Roxford
